

Romans

Good News for a Broken World

Sermon Title

The Condemnation of All People: Romans 3:1-20

Outline of Romans 3:1-20

- The objections (3:1-8)
 - The charge (3:9)
 - The evidence (3:10-18)
 - The closing argument (3:19-20)
-

Central Idea of Romans 3:1-20

Apart from the gospel, all people stand condemned before God, the impartial Judge, because all are under sin.

Personal Application

- Will you embrace the spiritual lostness, or total depravity, of the human race?
 - Will you evaluate your words and actions over the past week? Are your words or deeds ever harmful, instead of helpful?
 - Will you reject your social grouping and religious performance as means of salvation?
-

Discussion Questions

- After hearing the sermon on Romans 3:1-20, what did you understand to be the main point of the message?
- Was there anything new, interesting, or insightful that stood out to you from the passage or the sermon?
- Was there anything said during the sermon that you found unclear or confusing?
- What will be your main takeaway or primary application from the sermon this week?
- What obstacle/s might you encounter and need to overcome in order to live out your personal application from the sermon?